

Absence & Loss Exhibition

"Absence and Loss" - an exhibition by photographer Marion Davies is now available to borrow free of charge from HMDT. "Absence and Loss" examines architectural memorials to victims of the Holocaust and Nazi persecution. This powerful exhibition was created as part of a personal pilgrimage and creates a powerful and evocative mood.

There is no cost for the hire of the exhibition however we do ask that transport costs are paid.

This exhibition is available on a first come, first served basis and is suitable for showing all year round. A book of the exhibition can be ordered from publisher info@davidpaulbooks.com or from Marion Davies at davies.marion@gmail.com.
